ROTARY PEACE CENTERS RANKING

PLEASE READ CAREFULLY BEFORE PROCEEDING.

The Rotary Foundation has partnered with seven leading universities worldwide in establishing six Rotary Peace Centers. Each year, a new class of Rotary Peace Fellows is selected to study in a master's degree program in international relations, peace, and conflict resolution lasting up to two years and a professional development certificate program in peace and conflict studies lasting up to three months.

Details on the curriculum and programs at each Rotary Peace Center are available at www.rotary.org/rotarycenters. You are expected to have thoroughly researched these centers to determine the suitability of their programs of study and admission criteria before completing this application. Please rank the centers in order of preference by writing "1" in the blank before your first choice, "2" before your second choice, and "3" before your third choice. When ranking the centers, please be mindful of the following restrictions:

- You must be proficient in the language of instruction at the university partner. If you are applying for the master's degree program at universities where your native language is spoken, you must also be proficient in a second language. Note: Coursework at International Christian University (Tokyo) may be taken in English, with Japanese-language training provided where necessary; coursework at the Rotary Peace Center at Chulalongkorn University is conducted entirely in English.
- You may not attend a center in your home country or country of application, with the exception of Thai citizens or residents of Thailand who are interested in attending the Rotary Peace Center at Chulalongkorn University and Japanese citizens or residents of Japan who have completed a course of study outside Japan and are interested in attending the Rotary Peace Center at International Christian University.
- You cannot request assignment to a university where you will already be enrolled before the fellowship year. Fellows who begin studies at their assigned university before their fellowship term forfeit their awards.
- Fellows must begin their studies as specified by their assigned Rotary Peace Center:
Master's degree: July, August, or September 2012 (Northern Hemisphere); February or March 2013 (Southern Hemisphere)
Professional development certificate: January and June each year
- If you are selected for a Rotary Peace Fellowship, it will be your responsibility to apply directly and gain admission to the degree program of the assigned Rotary Peace Center university partner immediately following notification of the award. Failure to gain admission will nullify your fellowship. Selection by Rotary does not guarantee admission to the desired university degree program. Admission to one of the university partners before the fellowship competition does not guarantee your selection as a Rotary Peace Fellow. Rotary Peace Fellows assigned to the Rotary Peace Center at Chulalongkorn University are exempt from these requirements.

Please indicate your preference for either the short-term professional development certificate program or the master's degree program. Candidates will not be considered for both.
